

Facts About David

- Born and raised in Minneapolis, MN.
- Graduated from Brown College in Minneapolis and studied guitar through the Conservatory of Music in Seville, Spain.
- 20 years performing professionally, over 2000 shows.
- Charter member of the Fine Arts Hall of Fame at Richfield Senior High School, Mn.
- Appeared in theatrical productions of: Arsenic and Old Lace (Jonathan) Taming of the Shrew (Petruccio) Finian's Rainbow, (Woody) and various industrial shows in association with Don Stolz and the Old Log Theater.
- Named one of America's top 10 radio program directors by Inside Radio in 1990.
- Author of the radio campaign that established funding for the Minnesota Viet Nam Veterans War Memorial.
- Worked as a voice over and on-camera talent and has been featured on many radio and television commercials through the years including: Insty Print, Berkley Tackle and John G. Kinnard Investments, to name a few.
- Has shared the stage with: Merle Haggard, Mary Chapin Carpenter, Juice Newton, BJ Thomas, Kathy Mattea, Michael Johnson and The Statler Brothers.
- Featured in articles of the Minneapolis Tribune, City Pages, Passages (NW Airlines) plus many regional newspapers in the Midwest.
- Performances throughout the United States.
- Author of the book, Secrets of Ventriloquism.™ Published by Montgomery Press in Minneapolis.
- As a composer has written over one hundred pieces of music for guitar as well as voice.
- A recording artist with 7 albums to his credit: It is Written, Voyager, Metamorphosis, The Songs We Sang, Fairwood, Still Life and Andalusian Sojourn.
- Associations: American Federation of Musicians, Local 30-73
- American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers (ASCAP)
- Puppeteers of America